SUBJECT: Cover for Subject
l. Fursuant to your requirement for status cover for Subject, the following devised cover has been developed. Subject will be employed as of 1 November 1961, by a devised cover firm engaged in providing consulting services in the field of electronics and electrical instruments. His immediate position will be that of consultant assigned to the Southeastern part of the United States. This cover was selected in view of Subject's past employment where he represented various electrical suppliers.  1. It is is a fully backstopped cover device which will list Subject as one of its employees thereby furnishing a credit and employment reference for him. His payments will be made to him by bank transfer as in the past.
3. It should be pointed out to Subject that he will receive and a Treasury form 1099 at the end of each taxable year, showing as his source of income. Therefore, it is incumbent on Subject to file an overt tax return listing himself as an independent contractor with thereby explaining why taxes were not withhold.
<ol> <li>You are requested to advise Headquarters when this cover arrangement is no longer needed, so that proper backstopping can be effected.</li> </ol>
